SHUTTER OPEN

September 2 - Meeting at Parker College.

CONTEST - Turn in for Open Category.

September 16 - Meeting at Parker College.

Please turn in your prints and slides for the Bird Competition, the annual competition with the Fort Worth Camera Club, so named because the trophy is a sculpture of a bird. See Page 2 for a history of the competition. Each person may turn in a total of 4 prints and slides. These need not be photos that have been entered in the regular competition.

PROGRAM - Lafayette, Lake Martin and Avery Island, Louisiana Field Trip Slide Show; Clark Gardens Field Trip Slide Show; Pat Dawson's Sports and Musicians Slide Show.

October 2 - The "Bird" competition, hosted this year by the Fort Worth Camera Club in Fort Worth. Location will be announced.

October 7 - Meeting at Parker College.

CONTEST - Turn in for Wildflowers Category.

October 21 - Meeting at Parker College.

PROGRAM - David Schleser, a professional photographer and biologist will be present an intriguing program on photography of the Amazon. He has been hosting photography and biology tours in the Amazon region for the past 13 years. He returned from his latest trip in July and has many images of flora, fish and insects to share. He is a former curator of the Dallas Aquarium in Fair Park. He took early retirement to work full time for Nature's Images, Inc., a natural history photography and writing company.

November 4 - Meeting at Parker College.

CONTEST - Turn in for Open Category.

November 18 - Meeting at Parker College.

PROGRAM - The Fort Worth Scavenger Hunt Field Trip Slide Show, tentatively scheduled.

December 2 - Meeting at Parker College.

THE BIRD COMPETITION

In 1960, Targut Ulag, President of the Dallas Camera Club, and James Midgett, President of the Fort Worth Camera Club, started the annual Dallas/Fort Worth inter-club competition that has come to be known as The Bird Competition. Along with a year's worth of bragging rights, the winning club takes custody of "The Bird," an original sculpture donated by Emily Guthrie Smith, a Fort Worth native and a nationally-recognized artist.

Submissions for The Bird Competition will be accepted at the September 16 meeting. Each member is encouraged to enter examples of his or her best work (up to four prints and/or slides). Print entries must be the original work of the entrant, but commercial prints made from slides/negatives exposed by the entrant can be submitted for competition. These may be prints or slides that have not been submitted for regular competition.

Get ready for some great food, fellowship, and photography at this year's Bird Competition, where the Dallas—uh, that is, the lucky camera club will once again win The Bird.

The location of the contest alternates yearly. Since Fort Worth is hosting this year, we will follow their rules for maximum print sizes. FWCC allows print submissions up to 16 x 20, with a mat size of 20 x 24.

FIELD TRIPSFri. to Sun., Sept. 5 to 7 - American Indian Powwow - Grand Prairie

This 2 1/2-day event is FREE. Parking is $2 per car.

Several hundred Native Americans, representing dozens of tribes across the United States, will take part in this celebration. Powwow is a time to remember. Indian people come together to dance, sing, meet old friends and make new ones. The powwow is a link to the American Indians' past. You are asked to respect and honor this. Do not touch the dancers' costumes or photograph without permission. The costumes worn by many dancers are often treasured heirlooms passed down through generations.

Dance styles vary according to the tribe. The main ones are:

Men's Traditional - The oldest form shows stalking of game or tracking an enemy.

Men's Fancy Dance - One of the most strenuous, originated in Oklahoma.

Men's Grass Dance - Began among the Plains Tribes to flatten the tall grasses for a new camp.

Ladies' Buckskin - The oldest among women's dances.

Ladies' Fancy Shawl - The newest and represents a butterfly in flight.

Jingle Dance - Began among Northern Tribes and is associated with healing. Requires intricate footwork.

Drum & Song - Drum sets rhythm of the dance and tempo of the song. The single beat represents Mother Earth and the double beat stands for Humans.

TIME: Dance Schedule: Fri. evening at 8 PM,
Sat at 2 PM and 8 PM,
Sun at 2 PM.

Crafts: 10 AM to 8 PM.

DIRECTIONS: Trader's Village, 2602 Mayfield Rd., Grand Prairie. Located 5 miles south of Six Flags, just off Hwy 360 near I-20. Telephone: 972-647-2331.

Sat. Oct. 18 - Autumn Trails - Winnsboro, TX

Fri. Sat. & Sun. Nov. 14, 15, 16 - Forbidden Gardens & Anahuac Nat. Wildlife Refuge - Katy

The Forbidden Gardens is a project of a native Chinese man who settled in Katy, TX and became wealthy. He wanted to expose the Americans to his native land so he reproduced the Forbidden City in Beijing and also reproduced the army of buried soldiers in Xian. It is really something to see if you can't go to China.

Anahuac was Patricia Steele's favorite place to photograph birds, alligators, etc. Katy is 10 miles west of Houston and Anahuac is just a little further east of Houston on the Gulf.
