

USA_Texas_Willow City_Willow City Bluebonnett Loop

Trip Profile

Topic	Details
Trip Name	Spring Bluebonnets on the Willow City Loop
Short Description	Back country drive in the Hill Country west of Marble Falls. During spring, the loop offers multiple opportunities for wildflowers maybe mixed in with some domestic and wild animals.
Web Site	https://txhillcountrytrail.com/plan-your-adventure/historic-sites-and-cities/sites/willow-city-loop
Contributor/email	Starflight_2000@yahoo.com
Travel Time	About 4 hours south of Fort Worth About 1.5 hours west of Austin
Date trip taken	Document created 2021/03/12
Points of Interest	Bluebonnet fields, ponds
Address for Mapping Software	The loop connects with Hwy 16 just north of Fredericksburg, TX Southern Intersection is at FM1323 – Go East and the loop connects in about 3 miles (GPS 30.413470, -98.736791) Northern Intersection is named Willow City Loop (GPS 30.484799, -98.704218)
Restrictions / Safety Issues	The land along the loop is privately owned – so be respectful of the property boundaries. Pay careful attention to other vehicles – this is an immensely popular destination.
Entry Fee	None
Lodging Suggestions	Fredericksburg is closest. Marble Falls is centralized in the Hill Country.
Dining Suggestions
Best Shooting Time of Day	Landscape photography considerations.
Primary GPS Coordinate	(GPS 30.413470, -98.736791) (GPS 30.484799, -98.704218)

USA_Texas_Willow City_Willow City Bluebonnett Loop

Special notes

ID	Note
1
2

